"If you're feverish for a chilling scientific thriller with a sharp edge of romance, I prescribe SINS OF THE FLESH as a sexy, satisfying cure!"

Jessica Andersen

"SINS OF THE FLESH explodes on the page with page-turning action and sizzling love scenes as only Caridad Piñeiro can deliver!"

LA Banks

"Cutting-edge scientific conspiracy gives "paranormal" a fascinating and believable new edge in Caridad Piñeiro's exciting romantic suspense thriller. A man and woman, each labeled "rogue," must make extraordinary efforts to stop a species-threatening scheme. Piñeiro's Mick and Caterina generate plenty of heart, heat, and heroism to defeat clever and brutal killers."

Carole Nelson Douglas

"SINS OF THE FLESH captured my full attention with its too-human characters and its too-real plot. A fascinating, adrenaline-fueling read! I could not stop turning the pages!"
